Dear Friend of Love Street,

On April 4, 1964, the Beatles accomplished a feat that remains unmatched – they held the top five positions in the Billboard Hot 100 chart. The impact of the Beatles on music and society also remains unduplicated. And perhaps more clearly than any other band, they sought to spread the message that what we get out of this world depends entirely on what we put into it. Or as they put it in their final message to the world at the close of the Abbey Road album, “The love you take is equal to the love you make.”

Love Street is a Houston-area 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that applies this credo by using music to benefit local children. For example, our Tonic program has brought live music to local children’s hospitals since May 2009. Each month, Tonic brings music to hundreds of patients and family members at Texas Children’s Hospital and Shriners Hospital for Children. But we need your help to keep the music going!

You can give the gift of song by supporting Love Street’s annual Beatles-themed gala, known as Come Together. This year’s event will be held on Friday, September 16, 2011, at 7:00 p.m., in the Crystal Ballroom at the Post Rice Lofts. We have an exciting evening planned. Local radio legend Dayna Steele will host. Beatles insider Ken Mansfield – former head of Apple Records’ U.S. operations – will speak, while guests dine on Rubber Soul food from Mikki’s Cafe. And as always, some of Houston’s best bands will play one classic Beatles song after another, while guests fill the dance floor.

Your support for Come Together will help Love Street bring music to even more children. Love Street has always operated with a minimum of expense, but we are bursting at our seams. Further growth will require some things that only money can provide. We understand that times are tough. We promise to be good stewards of your donations. And tables for Come Together start at just $2,000.

I attach a donation form that you can fill out and mail back to Love Street at the address below. If you would prefer the form and item to be picked up at your location, please call Lisa Watts at 713-304-3047 to arrange pick up. Love Street greatly appreciates your support. If you have any questions about Come Together sponsorship or of Love Street in general, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very Truly Yours,

Patrick Waites
